

Pre-Awakening Memory: Only a woman faintly calling for him “Zack, My Zack, Come back to me my Zack.”

Post-Awakening Memory:

Young Zack Reverland, of the Colony, a young man and a pristine candidate for the Brood’s newest brigade. Zack is of humble origins, and by the age of 15 he was quickly put into place by the Overlords of the Brood’s Army structure. By the age of 16, he was the youngest in the History of the Brood to attain the Rank of Captain and begin his own brigade, one that specialized in Hard Hitting assaults. This brigade became known as the Huukai Brigade, or “The Dragon’s Claw,” in his native tongue. Each soldier of the Huukai can be identified by two simple observations, the large blade, and their eyes, that seem to burn like gentle blue flames and reflect their emotions. Upon obtaining his Captainship he met a beautiful young woman, daughter to an Overlord of the Brood, Kara Stormcrow. This upset the Overlord, who was disgusted by his only Daughter falling for a ‘Commoner’ and quickly had Zack thrown on a “Secret” mission, which he has yet to return from. (The details of this mission he does not remember. Also, the Brood who take him away do so under Kara’s orders.)

Level 1: Favored Plane

When Zack was young, and first looked at by the Brood he was excited. Shortly after making it in, it became his favorite place to be, simply because he was able to see the most beautiful woman he’s ever known, Kara Stormcrow, although she was the adoptive daughter of the Overlords, she too came from humble origins. The first thing they were taught was to choose their favorite place and memorize it, so he choose, The Outer Planes, the home of the Brood.
